My experience with Peaks & Valleys Construction was amazing! Starting off with a free quote, I decided to go forward with it and had an inspection by Scott who went above and beyond, and walked us through everything in detail and answered all our questions. Can't be more happy with the new roof.

It was a pleasure to work with Jared and quite frankly it was the best decision I made with the biggest investment of my life. He was very responsive throughout the process, answering any questions I had. He knew the market well. Overall I was very impressed with his services. I'll be sure to reach out to Jared the next time I have real estate needs.
